

"ALL MY LIFETIME"

Lyric by Bob Kessler

All My lifetime
I've been waiting
Waiting just for you,
And could it be you've waited all your lifetime too?

All those dull years
Now forgotten,
Now that you've been found,
And for the first time springtime happens all year 'round.

Life began when you walked in the door
I can't recall what came before
I found a love so warm and true.....
You.....

All my lifetime,
Now and ever
All I'll try to do
Is give my love to you all your lifetime through.
