

"BLUE AND SILVER"

An Alma Mater for Queens College

Written by Robert J. Kessler

Blue and Silver,
Silver and Blue,
We will always cherish you

As we seek the reins of leadership
In a world we've yet to build
We will hold your name in high esteem
For the standards you've instilled

Limitless your sky of blue
Silver of wisdom shining through
Where hope for future years convenes
Alma Mater,
Our Queens.
