

"WHO WAS THAT GIRL?"

Music and lyric by Bob Kessler

Who was that girl,
That girl I knew,
That girl I loved,
Who loved me too,
Who mad ebte world wobhh facing every day?

Who was that girl?
Ypu must recall.
She held my hopes,
My dreams, my all.
Remind me , now, why did she go away?

Old friend of mine,
Who knew us from the start
Old friend of mine,
Help heal my hurting heart,

And tell me, please,
I must know why.
Did someone need her more than I?
One final thing, Old Friend,
And then I'm through
Who was that girl I saw last night with you?

YOU TURNED AND SMILED

Lyric by Bob Kessler

Verse

I saw you for the first time
On that gloomy, rainy day
I said "I'll go and say hello
If she doesn't walk away"
I stood there so uncertain and shy
And sad to say you passed me right by
I said " You've lost your chance, old boy,
To meet her face to face",
But then the most miraculous of miracles took place

The sun broke through a cloud
The whole world laughed out loud
And all because you turned and smiled at me

There never was a sweeter surprise
As when my eyes encountered your eyes

Though that warm infectious grin
May not have really been
The thing that made our love first come to be
As far as I'm concerned
This love we've lived and learned
All started when you turned and smiled at me.

"SLOW ME DOWN"

Lyric- Bob Kessler

I driv^e for a living, I don't drive for fun
I drive in the snow, in the rain, in the sun
First thing in the morning the battle begins
I'm racing with time... and it's time always ~~win~~ wins

(Chorus) Slow me down quick, boys
 Slow me down fast
 Slow me down soon

Or I'll nver last

Slow me down country,
City and town
I'll only make it if you
SLOW ME DOWN

The road is high-pressure, a fast moving life
My rig is my partner, my home and my wife
Maybe one night with Jeannie and one night with Joan
Then five nights of turnpike, awake and alone

(Chorus)

Each day is high-ballin', high-speed and hi-test
My mind needs a tune-up, my body a rest
At the rate that I'm goin' If I'm still alive
I'll be used up and burnt out when I'm thirty-five

(Chorus)

"THE WAITING ROOM"

Michael Kamen-Bob Kessler

I was either dreaming or insane last night.....
You and I were there inside a high, wide place
Only wooden benches and four clocks in sight,
Minute hands not moving while the hours race.....

Ooh, what have we come to.....?

Wasting away in THE WAITING ROOM

One by one the others come and take a seat
Pretty soon they fill the room from door to door
Suddenly a voice says, "Your attention, Please,
There will be a short delay...or maybe more..."

Ooh, what have we come to.....?

Wasting away in THE WAITING ROOM

After several centuries have come and gone
One by one the others leave in silent flight
Last thing I remember we're again alone.....
I was either dreaming or insane last night

Ooh, What have we come to.....?

"YOU AGAIN"

Lyric- Bob Kessler

Just when I start thinkin' I've got over you again,
~~XXXX~~ I'm back on my feet an' doin' really well,
Then you write and say you may be passin' thru again,
"Do you miss me, Babe?
Do you need me, Babe?"
Here we go again.....Oh, Hell!!!

Just when I start thinkin' maybe I'll connect again,
Just when other girls start relly lookin' swell,
Then the phone will ring, you're callin' me collect again,
"Do you love me, Babe?
Do you want me, Babe?"
Here we go again.....Oh, Hell!!!

Well, I just bought a brand new chair
I'm sure you wouldn't like at all.
Hung that poster that you hated on the bedroom wall.
Just to keep me company I got myself a dog named Blue
I don't think you'll care for him, I'm sure he won't like you
To come marchin' in here ready to unload again
All your paperbacks and that old chinese bell
If I was that dog I'd tell you "Hit the road again",
But I miss you, Babe
And I love ypu, Babe,
Here we go again.....Oh, Hell!!!

(Goodbye, Blue)

"YOU BURN"

Music- Marc Galutin

Lyric- Bob Kessler

In the back of my mind
There's a memory of you
Though I tell myself "forget her"
You're in everything I do ... 'cause
 You burn, You burn
 Though we've been so long apart
 You burn like an ember
 In the back of my heart
I have held other hands
An' I've looked in other eyes
An' I've said to some "I love you"
An' they were not always lies...but
 You burn, you burn
 An' you're holdin' back the dark
 You burn like an ember
 In the back of my heart
Since you turned me on, an' then around
All my free an' easy's gone
Only thing I know for sure is, Girl
That fire that you started smoulders on an' on an' on...
In the back of my mind
Where it won't get in the way
I'm as certain as tomorrow
You'll see me back again some day... 'cause
 You burn, you burn
 with ~~an~~ a never-ending spark (etc.)

"UP ON YOUR FEET"

Lyric- Bob Kessler

We're sittin' here waitin', what for we can't guess
There ought to be more but there seems to be less
The mind, it grows lazy, we don't even talk
An' I got this feelin' it's time we should walk.....So

UP ON YOUR FEET, Mama,

UP ON YOUR FEET,

We got to be movin' now,

On down the street

There's some sort of deadline

We're goin' to meet.....So

Get it in gear, Mama,

UP ON YOUR FEET

We sat thru the summer, we got a good tan,
You gave your warm sweater to some poor old man
Now it's gettin' chilly, The sky's turnin' grey
It could be that winter is headin' our way.....so

(Chorus)

First left foot then right foot, go easy an' slow
The muscles will loosen, the blood start to flow,
It might help to sing some, so let's hear your voice
I know we can make it....We don't have much choice.....So,

(Chorus)

"ROCK IN MY SHOE"

(Gilutin-Kessler)

Soon as it stops rainin'
Gonna get back on my feet
Soon as things get looser
Gonna get out on the street
Gonna get it all together
Got a lot I wanna do
Soon as I feel better
Gonna show the world a thing or two

(Chorus) OOH..... I been so blue
But what can I do
I got a rock in my shoe
OOH.... I'm overdue
But you know it's true
That there's a rock in my shoe.....

If I'd only get discovered
I know I could be a star
I would love to be your lover
If you'd tell me who you are
There ain't nothin' gonna stop me
Soon a somethin' comes my way
Gonna have it all tomorrow
If I get a call today.....

(Chorus)

"PART OF YOU"

(Kamen-Kessler)

You rise and shine
But not with me to share your day
You've gone away.....so far away
New friends, new fights,
New sights to see.....you'll be okay
You go your way.....you~~take~~ own sweet way
But there's nothing in the world you can do
To keep me from being
Part of you.....

The love that's yours to have, to give,
Began somewhere.....
And I was there.....it's always there
So had it all and all we had
Goes on, (don't)you see.....
You're part of me.....you'll always be
And there's nothing in the world
You can do
To keep me from being
Part of you
Part of you goes and part of you stays
And part of you grows and part of you plays
But part of you knows through all of your days
That there's nothing in the world you can do
To keep me from being part of you.....
